

Team Member in the Global Mobilizing Office

Do you like to make people's dreams come true and contribute to stepping into their calling? In this position, you act as the gateway for people into missions. You will be the first point of contact for our potential future students and walk them through the entire onboarding journey until their arrival on campus.

What will your day look like:

- Your story matters! Share it with students on the phone (e.g., why you did a DTS or what God puts on your heart)
- In this role you will co-living in our community and contribute to shaping the life of students
- Relate and accompany the potential future students from A-Z in their application process
- Approve applications and communicate with school leaders
- Organize visa papers and accompany current students to local legal appointments
- Co-work with God to call people into missions and pray with the team

Did we capture your attention? Then see below what talents fit the job:

- English and any other language of our market is a huge plus
- Bring administrative skills and attention to detail with good follow-through
- You will thrive in this role if: you are organized, culturally-aware as you will be interacting with different nationalities every day, a clear communicator, energized, accountable, willing to learn, and highly relational
- You are spiritually growing as this is not merely marketing but God calling people into missions (Luke 10:2 calling workers for the harvest)
- Have a heart for missions and mobilizing people into the mission field
- Requirement: You have completed a DTS

What you can expect from us:

- You will work hands-on with our student body, all students will know your name, and you will hear their stories: you kick off the discipleship process before they get here
- Our work environment is friendly, full of grace, you get to play your music, you will find flexibility within our structure
- The privilege of seeing the fruit of your work in the following quarter
- You'll learn how to use different softwares (e.g., salesforce)
- You learn the process of enrolling students and the international law aspect of visas etc. and will gain an overview of YWAM and the University of the Nations
- Opportunity to live in a community environment and join base activities or short-time outreaches
- Possibility to enroll in our part-time leadership program during the first 3 months

Do you think you have what it takes and want to join our tribe or are interested to hear more? Then send us an email describing why you are the perfect fit: martina.schiess@ywamlausanne.com.

We are looking forward to hearing from you!
